

ALL THE NEWS OF DISQUALIFICATION JUST; FOUL WAS PLAIN TO ALL

Western Rule of Placing Offending Horse Behind Only Those Interfered With, Instead of Out of the Money Entirely, Should Be Followed Here.

The disqualification of Colonsay in the last race yesterday was probably the first instance on record, or at least for a great many years, where a dead heat has been set back by the stewards. The decision was an eminently just one, for there was no question that Michaelis did a lot of foul riding all through the last furlong. Not satisfied with forcing the Southerner to pull up, he continued to crowd Helleo all the way to the finish. The disqualification was also peculiarly satisfying to many people who do not like to see the Daily colors get into the money in any kind of a race. And it is surprising how many of these people there are who have an antipathy to Daly colors—probably because they do not like Daly colors. Still, all personal feeling aside, it would have been an injustice to the backers of Helleo and the Southerner not to have disqualified Colonsay, because the foul was plain and apparently deliberate.

There was not the shadow of a doubt as to who won the Sheriff Bill—unmasked race, yet the crowd groaned and hooted and hissed as if the judges had deliberately robbed them of their money by a false decision. To those on the line Sheriff Bill was unquestionably the winner and afterward when the stewards were questioned they declared that they agreed with the judges and that there was no doubt as to who was the winner. It is most ridiculous for a race crowd to bark and howl at a decision. Once the numbers are up the thing is ended and no amount of hooting and hissing can change it. The judges are competent

AND RACE TRACK

FARRELL AT TRACK.

Well-Known Horse Owner and Baseball Man Finds Time Between Games to Watch Races at Morris Park.

The Western Rule. After the disqualification of Colonsay Tommy Griffin said: "I think the Western rule is much better than that in the East concerning disqualifications. Out West the stewards have the discretion to place a horse second, third or out of the money, instead of disqualifying him. Colonsay did interfere with Helleo and the Southerner, he did not in any way interfere with Shorthose, and equity should demand that he be placed only behind those horses which suffered. By the disqualification Shorthose is moved up into a place where he did not belong by reason of merit."

The Western rule certainly does seem the fair thing. Say, for instance, that two horses finish together half a dozen lengths in front of the field. One horse badly interferes with the other. He does not in the least interfere with other horses in the race, and his interference with the one he fouled out with might have been unintentional. It is certainly fair to set him behind the horse he fouled, but is there any equity in placing him back of horses that were not in any way disturbed by swerving or fouling? The West is far ahead of the East in many things.

Rule seems best. There ought to be such a thing as equity in race decisions, and so long as the Western stewards are men whose integrity cannot be questioned, the matter of discretion in placing a horse back when equity of a fault could be safely trusted in their hands. In big stakes, where there is a large sum awarded to the placed horses, is the injustice apparent where a horse is set back to last place.

DREW WINS MATCH GAME IN IRELAND

Oliver Drew, who is matched to play Mike Egan, of Jersey City, for the world's handball championship, has just disposed of an important contest across the pond. According to the late British exchanges, Drew met William Herlihy for the Irish championship, which was for a stake of $250 a side. The conditions of the contest were the best of eleven games, and Drew won six straight and the title. The match was played at Tralee, County Kerry, Ireland, and there was a big crowd present.

FORBES WILL BOX BEZENAH MAY 26

By the terms agreed upon Harry Forbes and Bezenah, of Cincinnati, are to meet in the arena of the West End Club, Chicago, May 26. The match was practically closed by telegraph, John Reid acting for Bezenah at St. Louis end. The weight agreement calls for 125 pounds at the ringside, a figure that each can make without much trouble. If Forbes can get a match with Frankie Neff before one of the Western clubs it is likely he will call off the St. Louis dog.

SULLIVAN TO BOX KELLY TO-NIGHT

A good fight is scheduled to be decided to-night. The men who will meet in the bout are Jack "Twin" Sullivan, of New England pugilist, and Hugo Kelly, the hard-hitting fighter of Chicago. They will battle for ten rounds before the Indianapolis A. C. for a purse of $1,000. This will be the third time they have fought. Sullivan having been awarded the decision over Kelly in the two previous contests. Both men are in fit shape for the encounter, and a rattling mill is expected.
